

Fredericksburg, Va.
TUESDAY.....AUGUST 14, 1900.

Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad.
Schedule in effect July 1st, 1900.

Leave Norfolk.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Richmond.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Fredericksburg.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Washington.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Baltimore.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Philadelphia.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave New York.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Boston.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Portland.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Seattle.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave San Francisco.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Honolulu.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave London.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Paris.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Rome.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Athens.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Constantinople.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Bombay.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Calcutta.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Madras.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Singapore.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Hong Kong.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Shanghai.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Yokohama.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Kobe.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Osaka.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Tokyo.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Seoul.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Peking.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Tientsin.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Hankow.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Canton.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Shanghai.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Hong Kong.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Yokohama.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Kobe.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Osaka.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Tokyo.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Seoul.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Peking.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Tientsin.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Hankow.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Canton.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Shanghai.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Leave Hong Kong.
6:15 A. M. daily, no local stops.

Local and Current Comments

Mr. Phelps W. Embury is very sick. A shirt-waist club has been organized at Orange O. H.

Mr. Mason Willis is on a business trip to Rapidan.

Miss Grace King is very ill at her home on Main street.

Miss Fannie Powers, of Port Royal, is the guest of Miss Bruce Goodrick.

Miss Nora O. Willis has returned from a visit to relatives in Madison county.

Capt. W. A. Smith, of King George, was in the city Saturday on business.

Mrs. S. G. Wallace left for Richmond yesterday, where she will visit friends.

Miss Eva H. Gordon has returned from a visit of a month to friends at Rapidan.

Capt. Marion J. Dimmock, of Richmond, spent Sunday with his family in the country.

Maj. T. E. Morris and Mrs. Morris have returned from a month's absence in the mountains.

Rev. H. M. D. Martin, of West Point, is the guest of his father, Dr. H. M. D. Martin and family.

Notice—Fredericksburg Cereal Mills wants corn at once, either shelled or cobs. J. S. Woods.

Lumber for sale, Virginia pine boards and framing. Apply to W. F. Ficklen, Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. Ben Barrett, of Richmond, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barrett in the country.

Miss Annie M. Daniel, of Jefferson county, Va., is the guest of her relative Mrs. A. B. Yates.

Richard Swift, of Fredericksburg, is this week attending Marvinia Grove Camp—Virginia City.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Webb have returned from their bridal tour and are now at home in Bowling Green.

Miss Julia H. H. Richmond, who has been the guest of Mrs. S. G. Wallace, returned home yesterday.

Messrs. Frank Eban and Watson Salade of Williamsport, Pa., are the guests of Dr. J. E. Tompkins and family.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Roscoe preached an excellent sermon at the church services held in the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Farmers in portions of Orange county are said to be selling off their cattle on account of dry pastures and scarcity of hay.

Mr. L. Leland, of the Livingston National Bank, spent Sunday and Monday as the guest of Mr. A. Randolph Howard and family.

T. R. Obligation, of Culpeper, half-brother of J. G. Obligation, visited F. A. Brinkley the first of the week—South-Sentinel (Urbanus).

Rev. Clifford Macon formerly of Orange, but now of San Francisco, preached two very able sermons at Trinity church Sunday morning and night.

At the Tidewater convention, at Danvers, Essex county, last week Rev. S. H. Foster, of this city, was elected district organizer of the Christian Endeavor.

Ladies should see the latest New York styles in Gray Felt Hats. They are lighter and more satisfactory for general wear than straw. Brent's Millinery Department.

Your ribbon, lace, gloves, handkerchiefs, shoes, corsets and other good goods want to be easily supplied at C. W. Jones' cash store. Write, see, phone or send in your orders.

Go to Hall's Drug Store for Insect Powder, Fly Paper, Moth Balls, London Purple, "Black Death" for bugs of all kinds, also Lindbergh's Turpin Seed at low prices just received at Hall's.

Mr. Finney, of Richmond, has been in the city several days prospecting with a view of locating here. He has traveled over a large portion of the U. S. and says the South is the garden spot of the world.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with the people everywhere. For sale by M. M. Lewis Drugist.

Now is the time to have an exact photograph of yourself. You can have it made at the Fredericksburg Davis Gallery, 517 Main street. All work finished beautifully and at a fraction of cost.

Mr. W. F. Rector, aged 80 years died recently in Montana. He was a native of Rocktown, Fauquier county. In the Civil war he was a member of the 6th Virginia Cavalry. His friends and relatives in Virginia will regret to hear of his death.

The Mission opened Sunday afternoon in the King building below at 10 o'clock, with prayer by Mr. Geo. A. Mills. Rev. S. H. Foster preached a very interesting and powerful sermon.

The Orange Observer says: Dr. F. B. Perry has sold his beautiful pair of horses, Frank and Harry, to Mr. C. W. Harkamp, of Fredericksburg, for a fancy price. Mr. E. M. McGuire, of Richmond, has sold his house and lot—the Yager property—in West Orange to Mr. R. H. Rawlings, for the sum of $1,500.

A fire occurred at Mr. James Moseley's residence on Main street Saturday night. The house was a garage and stove being turned on too freely, the side of the house on which it was located took fire. Neighbors ran, and the fire was extinguished by the fire department.

The unbounded hospitality of the people of the Danversville neighborhood, Essex county, was a subject of much favorable comment by those who attended the Tidewater convention there last week. Those who returned on the steamer Saturday night were: Messrs. Mary W. Lee, Lucy and Attawia Shreshley, of Stafford; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCall, Mrs. Agnes Drake, Rev. S. H. Foster and Miss Carrie Williams, of this city.

Mr. Jno. Haymaker, of West Virginia, was Postmaster Jno. M. Griffin, died in 1893, while the First Brigade, Third Army Corps, was stationed in Stafford a case of liquor was buried there. The liquor was suddenly discovered by the military police.

The liquor is supposed to be in excellent preservation, as the bottles were sealed with sealing wax. The writer of the letter says he can fully describe the location and will do so to any one of Longstreet's men who will promise to send him a quart of the liquor.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die soon of Consumption. I heard Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the secret of the cure of all Lung Trouble. Regular size 60 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. M. Lewis' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die soon of Consumption. I heard Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the secret of the cure of all Lung Trouble. Regular size 60 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. M. Lewis' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die soon of Consumption. I heard Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the secret of the cure of all Lung Trouble. Regular size 60 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. M. Lewis' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die soon of Consumption. I heard Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the secret of the cure of all Lung Trouble. Regular size 60 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. M. Lewis' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to die soon of Consumption. I heard Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the secret of the cure of all Lung Trouble. Regular size 60 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at M. M. Lewis' Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

STAFFORD.

Enjoyable Excursion—Reckless Driving Causes Accident—Persons—Etc., Etc.

(Correspondence of The Free Lance.)

Stafford O. H., Va., August 11th.

Mrs. Sallie V. Anderson, of Baltimore, is visiting her brother, W. O. Stewart, Esq.

Mrs. M. N. Bryan has returned home from her visit to Washington.

A very enjoyable excursion from Coal Landing to Colonial Beach was had last Tuesday, one of the hottest days of the year. The steamer Lilly and Howard, Capt. Sison, left the point at 8:30 a. m. with the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodard and family, Messrs. Jas. M. and Frank Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dent, Geo. T. Dent, R. O. L. Moore, Sr., the Messrs. Anderson, Messrs. Blackburn, Messrs. Kinney, Messrs. Platt and family, E. Waller and family, Messrs. Walter and Alvin Lowry, Misses Sue and Bessie Lowry, Miss Ada Houston, Rev. J. K. Gilbert and family, Mr. J. S. Martin, Misses Nannie, Beatrice and Ella Woodard, Mr. Fitz Woodard, A. W. Gill, the Messrs. Gill, Mrs. Rana Gaines, Messrs. Charles Payne, Mr. S. B. Dabney and family, Misses Lucy, Maria and Nannie Morton and Mary G. Dix, Miss Nann, O. A. Bryan and family, Mr. Delvid Clift and family, Messrs. J. Y. and Wm. Trimm, Mr. G. W. Trimm and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Berry and family, Miss Robinson, the Messrs. Gallahan and many others. The run was made to the beach, about 50 miles, in four hours, when bathing was indulged in by many of the excursionists. At 2:30 p. m. the boat was headed for home, The Potomac was placed as a lake, an atmosphere haze having settled on the water, akin to Indian summer. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live Yankee, when they attempted to land at Aquia Creek in 1814. The steamer's motion, however, agitated the air, causing the trip to be a cool and pleasant one. The steamer Wakefield was met going down and the Keat on the return trip, as well as a tug towing three four-masted schooner laden with ice for Washington, all of which saluted the excursionists. Soon Maryland Point was reached and passed, and the Tanager and Point hills loomed up, where about 35 years ago heavy guns belched defiance to the historic Pawnee, Pequot and Live